It is understood that the party alluded to as under arrest here, states that the original design of the conspirators was to merely capture President Lincoln. some time back, and make him a prisoner, and in this way compel a general release of rebel prisoners, then held by the United States. When a general exchange of prisoners however commenced, this project was abandoned by him and others, as no longer necessary. He says he refused to have anything further to do with it, and endeavored to induce others to give up their designs upon the life of the President. This is substantially a correct statement of what the prisoner has so far divulged. He is a well known resident of

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL. 21, 1865

The Funeral Ceremonies at the Tabernacle.

In accordance with previous arrange ments, a notice of which was published in our issue of the 19th, the funeral ceremonies. in honor of the President of the United States deceased, were observed at the Tabernacle, Salt Lake City. coincident with the obsequies announced by telegraph to take place at the National Capitol on that day. An immense concourse assembled at the hour appointed, filling the building to its utmost capacity, religious differences for the time ignored, and soldiers and civilians all uniting as fellow citizens in common observance of the solemn occasion. The platform was occupied by a large number of prominent citizens and resident oficials, among whom were Elder Amasa M. Lyman, Rev. Norman McLeod, His Excellency Gov. Doty, His Honor Chief Justice Titus and many others.

After an appropriate hymn by the choir and prayer by Elder F. D. Richards. an address was delivered by Elder Amasa Lyman of the Mormon Church. which in tone and sentiment. was all that could have been wished. Being extemporaneous, no attempt was made to elaborate the address, but it was marked by much ability, feeling and fitness for the occa-

After another hymn by the choir, Rev Norman MeLeod pronounced an eulogi um on the exalted character and illustrious services of the deceased Chief Magistrate, which was at once eloquent. patriotic, appropriate and thoroughly Christian in its sentiment. The reverend gentleman spoke with a deep feeling which, coming from his own, appealed direct to the hearts of bis hearers. We have seldom listened to anything more affecting than this discourse and shall take pleasure in presenting it to our readers as soon as possible. The funeral services were closed with an anthem by the choir. Elder W. Woodruff offering the benediction.

The Tabernacle was more than crowded, and upwards of three thousand persons were present. The vast assemblage was called to order by City Marshal. We regret that we are not able to reproduce the eulogium in our columns to-day, but hope to lay it befor our readers in an early issue of the VEDETTE.

We doubt, if throughout this broad land there was a more noble, impressive and eloquent sermon preached on Wednesday last.

A Benediction by Elder Woodruff and a hymn from the choir closed the exercises and the vast throng departed.

Throughout the day the City wore the aspect of sincere sorrow, sympathetic with our fellow citizens of a mourn ing country.

Funeral Obsequies of President Lincoln.

At a meeting of the Federal, Civil and Military officials of Utah. held at the Executive, in Great Salt Lake City. April 18th at two P. M., Hon. J. Duane Doty, Governor, was called to the chair, Capt. C. H. Hemstead and T. B. H. Stenhouse, Esq., appointed Secretaries.

After preliminary consultation and expression of feeling over the sad event other combustible materials, to ensure which called this meeting together, the following resolutions, presented by Hon. Chief Justice Titas, were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the death by assassination of our beloved President, has wrung the hearts of all good men with grief;

Whereas, the serious wounding, by lawless violence, of our esteemed and benered Secretary of State, and bis two sons, mingles with the sorrow of actual bereavement, the paintal apprehension of further heart-rending loss, and,

Whereas, also, in this our hour of calamity, we may not inappropriately seek that relief which affliction finds in outward expression! Therefore,

Resolved. That we cannot suppress the profound sorrow, with which we lament the untimely death of our beloved President. Abraham Lincoln. whose integrity and ability as a magistrate had secured for him the confidence of his country and whose genial virtues as a man, had endeared him to humanity it-

Resolved. That with unaffected grief for our lamented President, is mingled the poignant regret, that he has not been spared to see and enjoy the frai-tion of that peace, which his labors had done so much to secure for his country, and which we believe is not far distant;

Resolved, That while we thus lament for our friend, the exemplary husband and lather, we cannot forget the stricken family, but with a feeling of unaffected condolence, humbly invoke for them that support, which transcends all human woe, in the divine power of its consolation ;

Resolved, That we devently hope that the wounds of our able and honorard, and his two sons, may none of them prove mortal, but that they may all soon be restored to health, and long choice, as he was for the second, pre-pared by labor and trial as he was for the first office in the government, and to which he is thus translated by the operation of the Constitution and the per mission of a tremendous Providence.

Resolved. That a committee of five be appointed on the part of the Federal of fice s to confer with a committee of like number on the part of the city authorities to make arrangements for suitable religious exercises to be held at the Tabernacle, April 19th, at twelve o'clock, M.

Col. J. C. Little informed the meeting that Elder Amasa M. Lyman had been selected by the city authorities to de-liver an address at the Tabernacle.

McLeod, Chaplain of Camp Douglas, was introduced and delivered one of the most impressive and burning culogiums on the life, character and public vices of the late President Lincoln.

AN ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE

BY A RESIDENT OF UTAH.

ARTICLE 13.

The abode of the migrants south, was destined to be of not very long dura-Church had been removed to Provo, and with them, as a necessary sequence in the then government of Utah, which was virtually a theocracy, and the real gov erning power of every department, still the head quarters of the militia were no minally in Great Salt Lake City. There everything was prepared for a general conflagration at the touch of the incendiary's torch. To this end, the few articonvenience of transportation, were piled ip in the several rooms of the house throughout the city, the rooms plenti fully supplied with straw, bay, wood and the speedy ruin of the entire city at whatever time the command should be

During the fall of 1857, a number of men employed by Government as team-sters in General Johnson's command, lett Fort Bridger en route to California Arriving in Great Salt Lake City, they were regarded and treated as spies, and on the 12th of April. 1858, were sent out of the Territory. Major Monroe had com mand of the party appointed to escort them out of the Territory, with instructions to take them a hundred miles beyond the northern settlements, to there "turn them loose," watch them closery. and if they made an effort to return to

Bridger, to MURDER THE LAST ONE OF THEM

After the return of this command from the North, they joined their families and friends in time to escort them back to their homes. The command of General Johnson arrived in the city on the 27th of June, 1858. Previous to this the news of the pardon extended to the en tire community had reached them, and a great number had returned to their homes. It being evident that the com munity must again submit to the au thority of the parent government, it was deemed politic to attempt a reconcilia tion between the officials sent and the church dignituries The secret spies of the church reported Governor Cummings as one whom they considered would be susceptible to the influences of bribery and as the vast amount of means in the coffers of the "Trustee in Trust" was more than ample for many such purpos es, it was resolved to make a great show of loyalty, to have out the bands to meet and escort him in, to show him every honor and favor in their power to gratily his vanity and self-love, and, in short by every species of obsequious flattery, parasitical sycophancy, and fawning servility to win him over to their cause. And as he was regarded by them as a broken down politician, anxious to mend nis fortunes, and as having political aspirations that needed influence and support in order to their realization, it was considered that the promise of their means and anmerical strength thrown nish to him a sufficient inducement to a disposition. The ruthless murthe scale in their favor. Should they not succeed in this, they then purposed to throw every possible obstruction in his way, and to so harass and perplex him as to compel him to abdicate in their favor, in the same manner as they had compelled others occupantly lead. had compelled others occupying Federal positions of trust before him to abdicate; the same men, too, whom the Utah press has so violently condemned for leaving their posts vacant before serving out their term of office. But, judging from the tone of Governor Cummings message, the general character of his administration of the functions of his administration of the functions of the leaves of the speaks of a fellow in that far bis high office, the complicity of the church leaders with him in every impor-tant move, his acquiescence in their legislative enactments, his constant favor shown to church officia s and his dis-favor manifested to the military and ju-dicial authority of the General Government in Utah, the first bait took but too

The Indians must be Exterminated.

The Territorial Enterprise has an editorial under the above head, and such is the opinion of nearly all the papers published in the Indian country, from the Mississippi to the Pacific. The expression, "exterminated," indicates severer measures, perhaps, than is generally desired; but that the people demand that the severest punishn ent be meted out to them, cannot be doubted. If the pun-ishment that thoroughly subdues them requires their extermination, than let it be so. The life of a single white man is of more value than that of every red skin from the Sierra Nevada to the Rocky Mourtains.

The white is of use to society at large, has friends and connections that suffer at his loss, and many, often, that are dependent on him. The death of a white man at the hands of the semibeasts, is a public calamity, while that of an Indian is but a death among savage and dangerous animals. The past few years have demonstrated that the Indians are entirely unworthy of sympathy; that the nobility of character, gratitude for favors, and chivalric qualities attributed to them were but the poetic fancies of romance writers, who only knew them through misty traditions. The true Indian character is that he is utterly devoid of every prin- it was brandy, or a torchlight ciple that entitles him to respect or consideration, unless it be energy, which is never displayed but for an evil purpose.

As a raging fire should be quenched, or a prowling wolf should be slain, so should the murdering and destroying Indian be wiped from the earth. That they have rights of soil and means of livelihood, that the whites do not respect, we emphatically deny. The thousand naked and houseless Shoshones, who a few years ago, solely occupied the Reese River country, obtaining their subsistence by pine nuts, buds and bark of trees, rats, lizards, snakes and roots, these had no more right to the exclusive occupation of the country than had the employes of the Overland Mail Company, or the first thousand miners that settled in the country.

The Indians never possessed any property more than they could carry on their backs, and never made any locality their home, nor made any use of the soil. That the incoming of the whites eliminated the Shoshones' resources, or worked him any injury is an unfounded assertion, and ridiculously false. That the Indian has a right to live, while he respects the rights of others, none can into the scales in his favor would fur- deny; but he has not shown such throw his influence and authority into ders they have committed within the last month, demand a punishment of them that will give indemnity for the past and security for the future.

> FERTILITY OF CALIFORNIA. -The editor of the Gardiner Journal has no doubt of the truth of Dr. Beloff State, who planted a pair of oldfashioned fire dogs in his garden, and in three weeks raised a litter of pups, and advises Dr. Bellows, if he can't do better credit to the fertility of California, to leave off lecturing.

CAPT. C. H. HEEPSTER ing of the Young Mea's Literary Association, of Salt Lake City, held April 17th, 1865, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, our worthy and esteemed brother and companion, Capt Chas. H. Hempstead, is about to leave us in the official discharge of duties to his country, and, whereas we regret his departure, and most deeply feel that in his absence we lose the services, influences and cooperation of one of our most efficient, talented and eloquent members; therefore be it

Resolved. That the hearty thanks of this Association be extended to Capt. Hempstead for the efforts he has made in our behalf, the talent and eloquence which be has at all times displayed in the defense of our interests, and the conservative spirit and wisdom which has ever characterised bim in his counsels for the growth and perpetuity of our Embryo Society. And that wherever duty may call our esteemed friend down, through lifes' pathway, our wishes for him shall be a happy Godspeed and a safe retufn.

MORE SOLDIERS FOR HUMBOLDY .-On Tuesday morning Captain A. B. Wells left Fort Churchill with a force of 100 mounted men, to proceed to Humboldt county, for the purpose of operating against the hostile Indians in that quarter. He is to join the command of Lieutenant Wolverton at or near Paradise Valley, where he will take the whole force of 150 men under his charge .-- Virginia Union, April 12th.

On Wednesday last, while the salu'e was being fired at noon, a most sad and melancholy accident occurred. Private Stein of Co. "B," 3d Batt. Inf., C. V., acting as gunner, while ramming home a cartridge, by the accidental discharge of the gun. was maimed for life. It seems that he, through neglect, did not properly sponge the gun, and that some sparks remained, previous to the insertion of the cartridge, which at once became igpited; shattering his side and face and blowing his right hand completely off. Stein is a very excellent and worthy man and is highly respected by his comrades throughout the entire command.

Too much caution cannot be exercised in the handling of cannon, and where no neglect is practiced, there is no danger of accident of this kind.

Head-Quarters, in the field. April 9th.

To Grant:- I have the honor to report the capture, this day, of the rebel Fort Blakely, with 2,400 prisoners and 20 (Signed) CANBY.

Lenaire, Tenn., April 16th.

The expedition, under Stoneman, which left Knoxville on the 10th of March, struck the East Tenn. and Va. railroad on the 14th inst. at Wythville, Christiansburg, and Salem. Between these points 33 bridges were burned, 25 miles of track totally destroyed, many prisoners were taken, and a considerable quantity of corn and other stores were destroyed. On the 6th Stoneman moved via Jacksonvile, Danbury and Macksville, arriving at Grant's Creek, three miles from Salisbury, the rebel line for the defense of the town, at 6, a. m., on the 12th. This line was defended by artillery and infantry, and was soon forced, and our forces entered Salisbury at 10. a. m., capturing eight stand of colors, nineteen pieces of artillery. 1,161 prisoners. 1,000 stand of arms and accoutrements, one million rounds of small ammunition and shell, sixty thousand pounds of powder, seventy-five thousand complete suits of clothing, three hundred and fifty thousand army blankets, twenty thousand pounds of bacon, one hundred thousand pounds of salt, twenty thousand pounds of sugar, twenty-seven thousand pounds of rice, ten thousand pounds of saltpeter, fifty thousand bushels of wheat, one hundred thousand dollars worth of medical supplies, and seven thousand bales of cotton. Thirteen pieces of artillery were brought away, and all other stores not needed for our immediate command were destroyed. The greater part of these supplies had just been received from Raleigh. One large arsenal and machinery complete, six depots, two engines and trains, and several bridges between Greensboro and Danville, also on either side of Salisbury, with several miles of railroad track were also destroyed. We lost very few in killed and wounded; among the latter, Capt. R. Morrow, A. A. G., of Stonemun's

Baltimore. April 18th. A gentleman who was at Point Look out yesterday morning, was informed by an officer of a gunboat, that Booth and other conspirators, about thirty in number, were in St. Mary's county. heavily armed, and endeavoring to make their way across the Potomac. which is strongly picketed, and no one is allowed to pass. He also stated, that, on Sunday evening, a small squad of our cavalry had a collision with them, and had been repulsed, but succeeded in capturing one of them. Our cavalry were reinforced yesterday morning, and were understood to have them completely sur-rounded and escape is deemed impossi-

A highly important arrest was made here to day. The name of the party is at present withheld. He has made a full confession of being one of the conspirators against the life of the President, and acknowledged himself to be the author of the letter signed. "Sam," which was found in Booth's trunk.

Washington, 18th. Late last night, a man disguised as a laborer, carrying a pick on his shoulder, approach da house occupied by the fami-ly of Survatt, in this city, and was about to enter when he was arrested, and upon washing the dirt from his face, he proved to be quite a different looking person from what his appearance indicated, he called himself Payne and exhibited not a little embarrassment. He managed to ask in agitated tones, why he was arrested. The colored servant of Secretary ry Seward was sent for, when she ex-"I know him by his general appearance and his mouth!" The servant said there could be no mistake, and others in Secretary Seward's house at the time. who probably have a recollection of Survatt's appearance, will be afforded an opportunity to recognise him. The man, arrested is believed to be Survatt, who perpetrated the dreadful acts at Secretary Seward's house.
